

[Snyder, John R.]

JOHN R. SNYDER

John R. Snyder, of Starkville, died at 6:40 Tuesday night in the Mary Imogene Bassett Hospital, after a short illness of bronchial pneumonia and complications.

The body was removed to the Griffith Funeral Home on Pioneer street, where it will remain until Friday, when funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. in the Methodist Episcopal church at Van Hornesville. The Rev. Charles Kramer, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, Universalist, of this village, will officiate, and burial will be in the Van Hornesville cemetery.

Mr. Snyder was born in Starkville May 15, 1857, the son of Aaron and Kate (Casler) Snyder. His entire life had been spent in that community. By occupation he was a farmer.

Surviving are four sons and a married daughter. Menzo Snyder of Cooperstown is one of the number. His wife died several years ago.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Fri. 19 May 1933

Transcribed on 10 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY