

[Sparks, Ida Goodrich]

Mrs. Walter Starks [Sparks]

Fort Pain, Jan. 15—Mrs. Ida Starks [Sparks], 50, wife of Walter Starks [Sparks], died at her home, 50 Douglas street, Friday evening at 4 o'clock, after a sickness of ten days, of pneumonia. She was born at Delhi, N.Y., and came to Fort Plain about 28 years ago, where she resided ever since. Besides her husband she is survived by four daughters, Alice, Elizabeth, Ellen and Helen, all of Fort Plain; her mother, Mrs. John Little, of this village; one sister, Mrs. Charles Cunningham, of Melrose, Mass.; one brother, Thomas Goodrich, of Syracuse, and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held at the home Monday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, and 2 at the Catherine Nellis Memorial chapel, the Rev. Henry D. [B.] Taylor of the Universalist church officiating. The body will be placed in the vault until spring.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Sat. 15 Jan 1927

FUNERAL SERVICE AT FORT PLAIN FOR MRS. WALTER SPARKS

FORT PLAIN, Jan. 17.—Funeral services for Mrs. Walter Sparks, fifty, were held today from the Catherine Nellis memorial chapel. The Rev. Henry B. Taylor of the Universalist church officiated. Mrs. Sparks died Saturday. She is survived by her husband; four daughters, Alice, Ellen, Elizabeth and Helen; her mother, Mrs. John Little, all of Fort Plain; a brother, Thomas Goodrich of Syracuse; and a sister, Mrs. Charles Cunningham of Melboro, Mass. Burial will take place in the spring.

Evening News, Albany NY, Mon. 17 Jan 1927