

[Sparks, Lloyd]

Lloyd Sparks

Lloyd Sparks, 77, was found dead about noon Tuesday in his home at Fort Plain by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burleigh, Schenectady, who were in the community for their weekly visit with Mr. Sparks, who had been living alone for some time.

He was born in Fort Plain Dec. 7, 1878, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sparks, and worked as a gardner [gardener] and handyman about the community for most of his life.

Survivors include three cousins, Mrs. Burleigh, and Edward Carpenter and Mrs. Cora Morgan, Fort Plain.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Gray Funeral Home with the Rev. James Alcock, pastor of the Universalist Church of the Messiah, officiating. Interment will be made in the Fort Plain Cemetery.

Courier-Standard, Canajoharie-Fort Plain NY, Thu. 9 Aug 1956