

[Starrett, Harold Lester]

HAROLD L. STARRETT DIES UNDER OPERATION

The body of Harold Lester Starrett, a pharmacist in the United States Navy, who died under an operation for ulcers of the stomach yesterday in the Naval Hospital at Washington, D. C., was to-day brought to the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hayden Starrett, 117 Stuyvesant avenue. Young Starrett was born in Brooklyn, and before joining the Navy three years ago, was a purchasing agent for a large Manhattan concern. While in the Navy he served for a time in Hayti, and recently was transferred to the Medical Corps at Washington. Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, W. Kemp Starrett, a cartoonist, and Milford Starrett, who is now serving with the Thirteenth Regiment Coast Artillery. Funeral services will be held at the Church of Good Tidings [Universalist], Stuyvesant avenue and Monroe street, to-morrow evening, the Rev. Charles Vail officiating. Interment at Greenwood Cemetery on Friday.

Brooklyn Standard Union, New York NY, Wed. 6 Mar 1918

Transcribed on 27 Sep 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY