

[Stauring, John J.]

Funeral of John J. Stauring

The funeral of John J. Stauring was held to-day at the residence on Hough street, Rev. D [DeWitt] Lamphear of the Universalist Church of Minden officiating. The choir of that congregation was present and rendered those exquisite reflections, "Some Time We'll Understand" and "Rock of Ages," with great taste and feeling. The remains were taken to the Western cemetery at Newville, within a short distance of his former home, for interment.
