DORA C. STEER DEAD AT HOME IN FORT PLAIN

Wife of Dr. H. G. Steer; Had Been Ill for Several Years;
Native of the Village; Rites on Sunday

FORT PLAIN, March 26.—Mrs. Dora Casler Steer, 64, wife of Dr. H. G. Steer, died yesterday morning at her home following an illness of several years.

Mrs. Steer was born in this village July 21, 1872, a daughter of Jeremiah and Amelia Pickard Casler. Practically all her life has been spent in this community where she was well known. She was a graduate of Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York, and practiced nursing until her marriage in 1919.

She was a member of the Universalist Church, the Chapin Club and the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, and until ill health forced her to discontinue, she was always active in church affairs.

She is survived by her husband; one step-daughter, Mrs. Edmund Gamble, Batavia; two sisters, Mrs. Lauren [Elsie] Kellogg, Amsterdam, and Mrs. Allie Homkey, Fort Plain; one niece, Mrs. Fred Schockley, Fort Plain, and two grand nephews, George and Robert Schockley, this village.

Funeral services will be held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. S. D. Butler officiating. Interment will be in the Fort Plain Cemetery.
