Ellisburgh.

—The past week has been made eventful by the death of three prominent citizens of the town of Ellisburgh—Joseph Mathews, Charles Stevens and Alva J. Smith...

Charles Stevens was a man of quiet demeanor, honest and upright in all his dealings and true to his word. He was firm in the belief of the final restoration of all mankind. Of him it might be said no one knew him but to admire him. His obsequies were held on the 6th inst. at the Universalist church, Rev. L. [Luther] Rice officiating. Mr. Stevens' remains were placed in Evergreen Cemetery at Roberts Corners.
