MR. LEWIS STICKNEY

Another old veteran of the Civil War has gone home to bivouac with the "boys in Blue" who have crossed to the "Eternal City."

Lewis Stickney was born in the town of Friendship February 28, 1841, and died in the same town October 5, 1921. He was the youngest child of Benjamin and Sarah Stickney. Of a family of nine children he was the last to be called Home. He leaves to mourn his loss his devoted wife and ten nieces and nephews, besides a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He had passed his whole life in the towns of either Friendship or Wirt, except two years he was in the army, and one year in Angelica. The high esteem in which he was held was manifested not only by the deeds of kindness that were shown in this hour of affliction, and the large attendance at his funeral, with the profusion of beautiful flowers sent as marks of respect, but the words of sincere appreciation of his many good qualities spoken by those who knew him well.

He was a kind husband, a good neighbor, and strictly honorable in all business relations. He will be greatly missed, not only in his home but by his many relatives and friends.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. Harry M. Wright of the Universalist Church of Hornell, and interment was in the Belmont cemetery.
