

[Stoodley, Sara Kilby]

MRS. STOODLEY RITES THURSDAY

Henderson, March 23.—The funeral for Mrs. Sara Kilby Stoodley, 83, wife of Edmund (Ned) Stoodley, who died Monday afternoon at the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Carpenter-Stoodley funeral home, Belleville. Rev. Adolph Weidanz, pastor of the Henderson Universalist church, will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery, Roberts Corners.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Surviving Mrs. Stoodley, besides her husband, are a nephew, Gail R. Everson, a niece, Mrs. J. Floyd [Lena Payne] Green, and a grandniece, Mrs. Charles H. Umbrecht, jr., all of Syracuse.

Mrs. Stoodley was born Oct. 3, 1881 in Henderson, a daughter of Frederick A. and Sophia Reed Kilby. She was married to Edmund Stoodley on June 9, 1909 in the Methodist parsonage, Henderson.

Mr. Stoodley was a meat cutter and butcher between 1909 and 1914, working in Henderson and later in Copenhagen for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Stoodley moved in 1914 to Skaneateles where Mr. Stoodley was manager of Greenland farms until his retirement in 1951. Following his retirement, the couple purchased a home in Henderson where they had since lived.

Mrs. Stoodley was a member of Henderson Universalist church, the A.U.W. [Association of Universalist Women] of the church, and the Comfort Tyler chapter, D.A.R.
