CHARLOTTE STOUT DIES

Miss Charlotte B. Stout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero S. [Nettie Burroughs] Stout, of Lake road East, died at her home Tuesday forenoon at the age of twenty-four years. Miss Stout was born in Olcott and has spent her life in this vicinity. She received her early education in the Olcott public school, later graduating from Lockport high school, and then the Teachers' Training class at Wilson. She was graduated from the Home Economics department of Cornell University, Ithaca, and until last November, taught in the high school at Poughkeepsie. She has been in ill health for about six months and death came as a result of a complication of diseases. She taught a Sunday school class in the Universalist church of which she was a member. She is survived by her parents and one sister, Mrs. Henry Dietrick, née Alice Stout of Appleton. Funeral services will be held from the home at 2:30 standard time Thursday afternoon with interment at Lake View cemetery, Olcott.
