

[Stowell, Henry Mortimer]

Henry Mortimer Stowell

The death of Henry Mortimer Stowell occurred at his home in Bowerstown, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock following an illness which has been with him all the spring. He had been confined to his bed for a little more than a week, and was gradually failing all that time.

Henry Stowell was the son of Royal Stowell and Sallie Mackey and was born in Middlefield eighty-six years ago. His wife, Martha Hunter, died ten [thirty] years ago. Practically all his life has been in Middlefield and for many years his home has been in Bowerstown.

The funeral will be held at his late home this Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Charles Kramer of the Universalist Church will officiate with burial in Lakewood cemetery.

Mr. Stowell is survived by five nieces, Mrs. John Kretzenger, Mrs. Mary VanHorn, Mrs. Edith Wick and Mrs. George Conklin of Cooperstown, Mrs. Hattie Lobdell of Boonville and by one nephew, Winfield Stowell of this place.
