

[Stupp, Joseph B.]

JOSEPH B. STUPP, AN ACCOUNTANT MANY YEARS, DIES

Joseph B. Stupp, 85, for many years a well known Auburnian, died Sunday morning at his home, 6 Burtis Flats. For many years, Mr. Stupp was accountant for the old Auburn Gas Light Company. He was born in New York City, but for the past 31 years had been a resident of Auburn. At the time of his retirement last October, he was an accountant at the Rondina furniture store.

Mr. Stupp was a member of St. Paul's Lodge, 124, F. & A. M. He is survived by one son, Shirley Stupp, of this city, and three daughters, Mrs. John B. Hannum and Mrs. Lutie G. Stupp of Bloomfield, N. J., and Mrs. James P. Paxton, of Port Washington, L. I.; also by four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the funeral rooms of Lester E. Brew, 47 Clark Street. Rev. Plato T. Jones, pastor of the First Universalist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Fort Hill Cemetery. Friends will call at 47 Clark Street.

For many years Mr. Stupp conducted a reconditioning furniture store in Market Street. He was one of the pioneer campers on Owasco Lake. In 1887, he purchased several acres of farm land between the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks and the lake shore, situated about one and one-half miles south of Owasco Lake Station, west side of the lake.

The large cottage at the point was named Elmwood and it became a well known landmark. Mr. Stupp was an ardent fisherman and a keen lover of the outdoors. He was keen for walking, thinking nothing of walking almost daily in the summer from the foot of Owasco Lake to his summer home, adhering to this practice until several years ago.

Citizen-Advertiser, Auburn NY, Mon. 19 Feb 1934