

[Sturges, Lucy Mack]

MRS. FRANCIS A. STURGES

ALBION—Mrs. Lucy Mack Sturges, 65, wife of former Orleans County Judge Francis A. Sturges of Albion, died in Arnold Gregory Memorial Hospital last night (Aug. 22, 1962) after a short illness.

A lifelong resident of Albion, she was a graduate of Cornell University and had taught in schools in Albion and Kendall[,] [m]ost recently as a substitute teacher. During her husband's tenure as county judge and surrogate she helped in his office work, as she had since his retirement from the public office.

She was prominent in civic work. She was a member of the Arnold Gregory Memorial Hospital for a number of years and at one time served as its secretary, and she also had served as president of the Hospital Twig Association at one time. She was a member of the Pullman Memorial Universalist Church and the Sheret Post unit of the American Legion Auxiliary.

She was married to Judge Sturges March 17, 1923. Besides her husband she leaves a son, David, of Endwell, N.Y.; a daughter, Mrs. Levi Woodcock of Albion; two grandchildren; a brother, Judson Mack of Rochester, and a sister, Mrs. Vernon Sprague of Albion.

Arrangements are being made at the Merrill-Grinnell Funeral Home at 12 Ingersoll St., Albion.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Mon. 28 Aug 1967