

[Swain, Emma Wood]

Death of Mrs. Charles J. Swain

Mrs. Emma Wood Swain, wife of ex-Postmaster Charles J. Swain, of this village, and an adopted daughter of the late Willard Wood, who built the Livingston Block, died last Saturday of pneumonia at the family home between Canaseraga and Hornell, aged fifty-five years. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Clara and Helen; the former was twenty-one years of age the day her mother was buried.

Mrs. Swain had been ill but six days and her death was a great shock to her family as well as to a wide circle of friends here and at Canaseraga.

Funeral services were held at her late home Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. E.P. Wood, pastor of the Nunda Universalist church, and the remains were brought to this village for interment in Oakwood, accompanied by Mr. Swain and two daughters, Mrs. Julia Healey and daughter and Miss Anna Swain.

There was a large attendance of friends from this village at the burial service and the sympathy of a large number of acquaintances is extended the family in their sudden bereavement.

The Nunda News, Nunda NY, Fri. 1 Apr 1932

Transcribed on 8 Aug 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY