[Sweetman, Henry P.]

HENRY P. SWEETMAN, 59, DIES AT CARTHAGE HOME

Carthage, Sept. 22.—Henry P. Sweetman, 59, well known resident of Carthage[,] died at 11 Saturday night at his home in South Clinton street from a complication of diseases. He recently underwent an operation at Hepburn hospital at Ogdensburg and he was believed on the way to recovery when he suffered a relapse.

Mr. Sweetman was born Jan. 19, 1864 at Croghan, and spent his early life in the lumber business, being identified with several of the leading concerns. For (15?) years he was affiliated with the Dexter Sulphite Pulp and Paper Company of Glenfield. He was a member of the Carthage Lodge, 153, F. and A. M., Carthage Chapter, 359, R.A.M., Watertown Commandery, Knights Templar. He also was connected with the chamber of commerce.

The funeral will be held from the late home at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery, Watertown Commandery, Knights Temp [missing line here] is survived by two sons, Henry Sweetman and Clarence Sweetman of Carthage; one sister, Mrs. Mary McQuillian of Carthage and one brother, James Sweetman of Watertown.

Daily Times, Watertown NY, Mon. 22 Sep 1924

SWEETMAN FUNERAL IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Carthage, Sept. 24.—The funeral of the late Henry Sweetman, which was held at the late residence in South Clinton street at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, was largely attended. Rev. G. D. [George Delbert] Walker, a prominent Universalist minister of the town, gave a short funeral service at the house, while the Knights Templar of Watertown were in charge of the rest of the services at the house and also at the grave at Fairview cemetery where interment was made.

The pall bearers were: A. Bion Carter, C. J. Reeder, D. G. Wilson, M. Gleason, H. H. Haller of Carthage and Dr. Clarence W. Campbell of Watertown. About 75 members of the Knights Templar organization were present at the services, while the total gathering numbered about 200 persons. Mr. Sweetman was prominent in industrial and civic life and his death will be deeply felt by the many persons who knew him, as well as all of the residents of the town.

Daily Times, Watertown NY, Wed. 24 Sep 1924