

Mrs. M C. S. Symonds

Mrs. Mary Catherine Stuart Symonds passed away last night at her home on East Main street at the age of 81 years. She had been ill for a considerable time.

Mrs. Symonds was born in Huntington, the daughter of Carlos Stuart and Catherine Oakley. The old Stuart property, now covered with business places, ran from Reeves store on Main street and New York avenue, up to and including the Trade School site, and extending back to New York avenue.

She was a faithful member of the First Universalist Church of this place until the disbanding of the society a number of years ago. Mrs. Symonds was a woman of unusually fine character. No funeral arrangements were made at the time of going to press.

The Long Islander, Huntington NY, Fri. 6 May 1932

Transcribed on 24 Dec 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY