

[Taber, Eugene]

DEATHS.

In Scipio, N.Y., April 7, EUGENE, son of Samuel A. and Elizabeth M. Taber, aged 1 year, 1 month and 27 days. When Eugene came into this world, he brought with him a beautiful and lovely little sister, that the writer had the pleasure of naming Estelle. Eugene and Estelle became more beautiful as they advanced in age and growth, and they bid fair to remain on earth and "twine with each other the wreath of friendship and love." But alas! in an unexpected hour the mute but fond parents were called upon to remove one of their precious treasures from the downy cradle and make for it a bed in the cold grave. The funeral¹ was attended on the 9th inst., and a sermon preached by the undersigned.
