

[Tallcott, Mary Catherine Warn]

MRS. MARY C. TALLCOTT RITES HELD AT PARISH

PARISH, Jan. 19.—Funeral services for Mary Catherine Tallcott, 90, widow of Cyrus Sayles Tallcott, were held Wednesday from the home with Rev. Julia M. Tobey, of the Universalist church of Central Square officiating.

Mrs. Tallcott died Monday evening, following an illness of heart disease with which she had been a sufferer for many years.

She was born here July 5, 1837, the daughter of John C. and Lahy Devendorf Warn, who were two of the first settlers of the village, the old home occupying the site where the State Bank stands.

Bearers for the services were Jame Gray, Burr Morgan, Frank Butler and Thomas D. Niles.

Those surviving are a son, Claude F. Talcott [Tallcott] of this village and three grand-daughters, Misses Hazel and Emogene Talcott [Tallcott] of Hempstead, L. I., and Mrs. J. L. Putnam of New Haven.

Interment was in Pleasant Lawn cemetery, Parish.

Palladium-Times, Oswego NY, Thu. 19 Jan 1928