

[Tanner, Addie M. Peck]

MRS. ADDIE M. TANNER

Mrs. Addie M. Tanner died in the Gregory Hospital in Albion on May 28 at the age of eighty-eight years. She had spent almost eighty-one years in Albion. She was the widow of Spencer Tanner, a well known farmer and property owner in this section, whose death occurred in 1920. They were married in 1882. She lived in her home on Academy Street since 1897.

She was a member of the Pullman Memorial Universalist Church, the Orleans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Otetiani Chapter of the Daughters of American Colonists. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Homer W. Luttenton, two nieces and a nephew.

The memorial service was conducted by the Rev. Donald W. Lawson, pastor of the Universalist Church in Albion.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, July-August 1948
[a publication of the NY State Convention of Universalists]

Transcribed on 19 Jun 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY