

[Tanner, Hilton Louis]

HILTON L. TANNER

Dolgeville—Hilton Louis Tanner, 41, Salisbury Center, died June 4, 1940, in an Albany hospital, where he had been confined about one week.

Mr. Tanner was born in Dolgeville, son of Louis Tanner and Mary E. Cramer. He was a member of the Universalist Church and its treasurer for 20 years.

He was a charter member of the Salisbury Fire Department and treasurer of that organization since it was organized. He also was a member of the Salisbury Center Grange, Pomona and state granges and had been superintendent of the Dibble-Tuttle Cemetery since the death of his father several years [ago].

Mr. Tanner worked for the Daniel Green Company for (23?) years. He married Vida Davis Dec. 20, 1920. She survives with a son, Robert Louis Tanner, at home.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at the home, the Rev. C. A. Moulton, Universalist Church, officiating.
