

[Tarbell, May]

MRS. EDWARD D. TARBELL

Mrs. Edward D. [May] Tarbell, 60, passed away early this morning at 4:30 o'clock at her home in Killawog following a long illness, having been confined to her bed for the past three months.

Mrs. Tarbell was born at McLean March 13, 1868, the daughter of the late Marsden and Jane Townley. She spent most of her life at her birth place, but later moved to Cortland and to Killawog.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Harold Gillette of Binghamton and Miss Mertie Tarbell of Killawog, and her son, Earle Tarbell of Cortlandville and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Universalist Church of McLean. Burial will be in McLean. The remains have been removed to the home of the son on the Kinney Gulf road where friends may call before the funeral.
