

[Taylor, Arthur J.]

COOPERSTOWN

Arthur J. Taylor, senior member of the firm of Taylor & Ellsworth, proprietors of a large dry goods store in Cooperstown, died Tuesday. He had been confined to his home for some time, practically helpless on account of chronic rheumatism. Mr. Taylor was 40 years old and unmarried. He was a member of Otsego Lodge, F. & A.M., and of the Universalist Church. He had been in business here many years and was greatly respected. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ralph [Nettie Belle Taylor] Ellsworth, with whom he resided.

Richfield Springs Daily, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 18 Aug 1910

Transcribed on 26 Dec 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY