

[Taylor, Frederick W.]

TAYLOR

Frederick W. Taylor, former attorney and court official in New York City, died on Wednesday evening after an illness of several months. He was 65 years of age. He had been employed by the City of New York for 38 years, first in the comptroller's office and later in the magistrates' courts, retiring in 1934. Since that time he and his wife have made their home in Clifton Springs.

He was a life member of Crystal Wave Lodge, No. 268, F. & A. M., Brooklyn; Brooklyn Chapter No. 148, R. A. M.; Brooklyn Masonic Veterans' Association; the Veterans' Association of the 106th Infantry N.Y.S.N.G. He was a member of All Souls' Universalist Church, Brooklyn.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Gillett Taylor; three brothers, Arthur Taylor, Lester Taylor and Judge Franklin Taylor of Brooklyn; one sister, Fannie J. Taylor of New York, and a nephew and niece, Paul and Dorothy Taylor of Brooklyn.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. B. F. Butler of Seneca Castle officiating. Burial will be made in the Gillet lot in Chapman Cemetery, Hopewell.
