

[Taylor, Mary]

DEATHS.

In Antwerp, Jefferson county, on the 24th of October last, Mrs. MARY TAYLOR, wife of Ephriam Taylor, aged 36 years, after a short but distressing illness, which deprived her most of the time of her reason. Sister T. has been a steadfast, unwavering believer in the doctrine of impartial grace. Her life and manner evinced her sincerity. Sober, serene, upright and benevolent, she was respected and beloved by her friends and acquaintances...Her death has made a breach in society, but more so in her surviving family. Her husband feels the loss of a helpmate indeed, her children that of a kind indulgent mother, and her aged widowed mother the loss of an only child. Her funeral was attended on the Sabbath (26th) by a numerous assembly (considering the inclemency of the weather) of sympathizing friends and neighbors, to whom the consolations of truth were administered by the writer, from Hosea xiii: 9, "In me is thy help." We feel grateful to our Presbyterian brethren for their liberality in opening their house of worship for us to attend the services, on the occasion.
