

[Temple, Catherine Southard]

MRS. SETH D. TEMPLE

Mrs. Seth D. Temple, 1516 City Street, Utica, died suddenly Wednesday noon in her home. Heart disease was the cause of death. Mrs. Temple had been in poor health for the last month, but her death came as a shock to her family.

Catherine Southard was born in Meredith Hollow, Delaware county, March 18, 1857. She was married in 1882 to Mr. Temple and the couple lived for many years in Phoenix Mills, near Cooperstown. In 1903, they moved to Utica and have resided there since. Mrs. Temple attended the Universalist church, in Cooperstown and Utica.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Patrolman Claude Temple of Utica and Carl Temple, New York and Utica; one sister, Mrs. Delia Uhlinger, Amsterdam; a brother, Ellsworth Southard, Stratford; three grandchildren of Utica and several nieces and nephews of Utica and Amsterdam.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 29 Jun 1928

Transcribed on 18 Sep 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY