

[Terry, Florence Seaton]

HENDERSON.

—One of those sad events which has cast a gloom over the whole community occurred Saturday night, June 21, in the death of Mrs. Florence Terry, wife of Dr. W. G. Terry and only daughter of Leonard Seaton of this village. She was aged 45. Mrs. Terry has been in poor health for several years gradually growing worse. She received the tenderest and most devoted care everything being done to alleviate her suffering, her daughter Mrs. J. A. Montague and Mrs. C. L. Royce being in constant attendance. When the end came it was like passing into a sweet and restful sleep. Beside her husband and father she leaves a son Richard S. Terry, a daughter, Mrs. J. A. [Harriet] Montague, and Mrs. C. L. [Lillian] Boyce to whom she has been like a mother, to mourn the loss of a loyal and devoted wife, daughter, mother and friend. The deepest sympathy is felt for the family thus bereft of the sweet spirit of their home. "Death loves a shining mark." Those who knew her best loved her best and though eminently fitted to adorn and take part in social life it was in her home that those qualities that endeared her to its inmates shone pre-eminent. She was always prominent in social, literary and religious work. From the time the W. C. T. U. was formed she was its secretary always prompt and faithful in her work until failing health compelled her to give it up. She was recording secretary for the Co. W. C. T. U. for a number of years. A fine elocutionist, she was always ready to give her services in helping and training others. Her funeral was held in the Universalist church of which she was a member, Monday at 2 p.m., Rev. Geo. Adams officiating. The interment was at Evergreen cemetery.

Jefferson County Journal, Adams NY, Tue. 24 Jun 1902

Transcribed on 12 May 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY