

[Thayer, Thaddius S.]

MORLEY

Morley, July 31. Thaddius S. Thayer died at his home here on Sunday evening, July 17th, of heart failure. He had been sick for the past ten months and suffered very much. He was born in Dunerston, Vermont, in 1819, coming to Ogdensburg in 1838 and from there to Morley in 1858 where he has since resided. He was a wheelwright and had worked at his trade for 68 years. He was always a firm believer in the Universalist church and a staunch Democrat. The Rev. Mr. Gerrish of Canton, conducted the services. Mr. Thayer left an only daughter who was very devoted to him.
