

[Thompson, Carrie Kilts]

MRS. CARRIE THOMPSON

St. Johnsville—Mrs. Carrie Kilts Thompson, 70, for a large part of her life a resident of the town of Fairfield, died Aug. 2, 1940 in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Decker, 63 West Main St. In failing health for several years, she developed pneumonia Monday.

Mrs. Thompson was born in the Town of Fairfield, daughter of Peter and Caroline Keller Kilts. She was married 47 years ago to James Y. Thompson, in Fairfield, and he died in 1920.

In 1924, she moved to Herkimer, and lived there until 1929, when she returned to Fairfield. For the last five years she had made her home with her daughter in this village.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Dolgeville Universalist Church, and an honorary member of Astenrogen chapter, DAR, Little Falls. In Fairfield, she was an active member of the Fairfield Grange.

She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Decker; Mrs. Leonard F. Windecker, Paines Hollow; Mrs. Floyd Boyce, Fairfield; and Mrs. Conrad Nielson Troy; two sons, Ford, Eatonsville, and Deane, Goulds, Fla., and six grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today from the home of Mrs. Windecker in Paines Hollow by the Rev. C. A. Moulton, pastor of the Dolgeville Universalist Church, assisted by the Rev. Dayton G. Van Deusen, this village, pastor of the Minden and Manheim Lutheran churches. Burial will be in Salisbury Rural Cemetery.
