

[Thompson, Jane Ann Cobb]

[Deaths.] In Webster, N.Y., Dec. 18, 1854, of consumption, Mrs. JANE ANN, wife of Chauncey Thompson, and daughter of Reuben Cobb, aged 27 years. The deceased suffered much, and bore her affliction with true Christian fortitude. She lived virtuous and respected, and died peaceful and converted. But a few weeks since, we followed her last child¹ to the tomb, and now she has gone to join her children in heaven; and an affectionate husband and tender father is left alone to mourn... The funeral was attended on the 20th, in the Universalist Church in Webster, and the rich consolations of the Gospel of a World's Redeemer were tendered to a large circle of mourning relatives, and a crowded house of sympathizing friends, by the writer.
