

[Tilyou, Hannah M. Turner]

Mrs. Hannah M. Tilyou

Little Falls, June 8.—At her home in Van Hornesville this morning occurred the death of Hannah M. Tilyou, widow of Abram Tilyou. Her death was due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Tilyou was born in the town of Warren 88 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Apolos Turner. In 1865 she was married to Abram Tilyou, one of the town of Stark's best known men. For years they conducted a farm in the Wiltsie hill section, a short distance south of Van Hornesville. Their farm adjoined that of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Young, parents of Owen D. Young. Some years ago Mr. and Mrs. Tilyou retired from the farm and moved to Van Hornesville. It was at the Van Hornesville home that she died. Mr. Tilyou was a Republican leader of the town and a trusted advisor of Owen D. Young.

There survives one son William of Schenectady. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 standard time from the home. Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist church of Fort Plain, will officiate. Burial will be in the Vana Hornesville cemetery.

Enterprise & News, St. Johnsville NY, Wed. 15 Jun 1932

Transcribed on 19 Aug 2022 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY