

[Timmerman, Margaret]

DEATHS

In the town of Minden, Montgomery co., N.Y., on Feb. the 29th, after a very brief illness, Mrs. MARGARET TIMMERMAN, relict of Adam Timmerman, aged 84 years and 9 months. Thus are the aged being gathered with the dead, "by those who in their turn must follow them." The deceased through her long life had ever been a consistent believer in the doctrines of Impartial Grace and Universal Reconciliation, and died trusting in the goodness of Him whose will is back of all our causes, and Whose love is behind all events. The funeral services were observed on Sunday, at the house of her remaining relatives, when the truths of the Christian faith were presented from 2nd Corinthians v. 5.
