Fort Plain
Mrs. Edward Tingue

The remains of Mrs. Edward Wells Tingue were brought here from Baltimore, Md., Thursday for burial in the Fort Plain cemetery. Services were held at the Tingue plot at the cemetery, Rev. H. [Herbert] F. Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church officiating. Mrs. Tingue was 76 years old. She is survived by her husband and three nephews and two nieces. Her husband was the youngest and last surviving son of the late Simeon Tingue, years ago a well known merchant of this village, and he was born in this village and removed to Baltimore about 1865. He returned to Fort Plain about 1867 and lived here two years, since which time his visits here have been very infrequent.
