

[Tinkler, Charles]

Nelliston Man Dies

Charles Tinkler, 72, was found dead in bed yesterday noon at the home of Mrs. Rose Failing in Nelliston, where he had been making his home since August. He was found by Mrs. Failing.

Coroner Hugh G. Ross, M.D., of St. Johnsville, was called. He ordered the body removed to the Gray funeral home, where an autopsy was performed. Afterwards he rendered a verdict [that] death was caused by heart trouble.

Mr. Tinkler was born in November, 1869, in Baltimore, Md., the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tinkler. He was a farmer by occupation.

The only survivor is one sister, Miss Hattie Tinkler of Baltimore, Md.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Gray funeral home. The Rev. William A. Haney, pastor of the Universalist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Fort Plain Cemetery.
