

[Trefethen, Ernest M.]

ERNEST M. TREFETHEN

The death of Ernest M. Trefethen occurred in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Keating in Williamsville, a suburb of Buffalo, on September 4. He had been seriously ill for the past three years. Mr. and Mrs. Trefethen were previously residents of Syracuse and active members of the Betts Memorial Universalist Church. Mr. Trefethen served this church as treasurer for a period of sixteen years and previously had been financial secretary. In Syracuse, he was employed in the State Highway Department. He was also the treasurer of the church school. He was a native of Lynn, Mass., and died in his seventieth year. He is survived by two daughters: Mrs. Keating and Mrs. Robert Hinman, and by two sons, Ellis M. and Lloyd S. Trefethen.

Dr. Ellsworth C. Reamon of Syracuse conducted the memorial service in the Beach Funeral Home in Williamsville on September 6.
