

[Trim, Eunice V.]

MISS EUNICE V. TRIM, CANDY CHEMIST, DIES

A long illness ended in death Saturday for Miss Eunice V. Trim, 50, of 543 Ashland Ave., chief chemist for Merckens Chocolate Co. Inc.

Miss Trim, daughter of George S. and Cora Close Trim, was born in Westfield, Pa., and graduated from Westfield High School in 1915.

She was a member of the Zonta Club, Victoria Chapter 102, Order of the Eastern Star at Mexico, N. Y., the American Chemical Society, the Association of Official Agriculture Chemists and the First Universalist Church. Survivors are a sister, Hildred Trim of New Haven, N. Y., and a brother, Julian C. Trim of Atlanta, Ga. The Rev. Bruce Swift, former pastor of First Universalist Church, will conduct funeral services at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening in the Johnson & Wilkins Funeral Home, 448 Delaware Ave. Burial will be Tuesday in New Haven.

Buffalo Evening News, Buffalo NY, Mon. 26 May 1947

Transcribed on 2 Oct 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY