

[Tripp, Charles]

Death of Charles Tripp

Charles Tripp, who had a stroke of paralysis Tuesday, April 6, died Monday evening, April 12, aged 73 years. He leaves a son, Murray Tripp, two daughters, Mrs. L. H. Wilcox and Mrs. George C. Rucker, and numerous other relatives. He was a lifelong Republican, and always true to his party. For him there were no off years in politics.

Steuben Courier, Bath NY, Fri. 16 Apr 1897

COHOCTON

The funeral of Charles Tripp, who died April 12th, was held at the Universalist church, Thursday at 1 p.m., Rev. B. B. Fairchild officiating, interment in Maple View cemetery. Mr. Tripp leaves one son, Murray Tripp; two daughters, Mrs. L. [Luther] H. Wilcox and Mrs. Geo. Rucker.

Steuben Advocate, Bath NY, Wed. 21 Apr 1897

Transcribed on 27 Jan 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY