

[Trussell, Elmira]

WEST STOCKHOLM

Mrs. Elmira Trussell, our Postmistress, died last Thursday at the hospital at Ogdensburg. The remains were brought to Winthrop and thence here, where the funeral services were held at her old home, the Universalist preacher of Winthrop officiating.

Mrs. Trussell spent most of her life in Stockholm, and held the office of Postmistress for a number of years. Her son Wade and daughter Mabel, who live in Troy, N.Y., were here, but returned again Monday. Her mother and sister are left at home, and she has two sisters in Bridgeport, Conn.
