

[Tucker, Mary Lyke]

Mrs. William Tucker

The funeral of Mary Lyke, wife of William Tucker, was held in the Universalist church, Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Tucker was born June 17, 1867, and died in her late home at Adrian, August 30, 1905. She lived in the vicinity of Whitesville until about two years ago. Mrs. Tucker was a great sufferer and a woman of many Christian virtues. The many friends gathered at the funeral service and the beautiful flowers all testified to the esteem in which she was held. Rev. James Herrick officiated and spoke very highly of her. The burial was made in the rural cemetery. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, four children, a mother, a sister, two brothers and other relatives and friends.
