

[Tullar, Mary]

Deaths. In Chili, Monroe co., N.Y. June 23d, Mrs. MARY TULLAR, in the 83d year of her age. Sister Tullar was born in Berkshire co., Massachusetts and removed to Western N.Y. in 1818. Her husband Paul Tullar died in 1836. Of six children, one son and one daughter are still living. As one of the pioneers of Monroe county, she has literally lived to see "the wilderness bud and blossom like the rose." Possessed of superior natural endowments, and of strong affections for her family and friends, she was esteemed by all who knew her. Funeral services by the writer.
