

[Turner, Charles]

Clarendon Loses an Old and Respected Citizen

Charles Turner, for 76 years a resident of the town of Clarendon, passed to the higher life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Darling, at Interlaken, N. Y., January 27. Mr. Turner was born January 7, 1832, at Peterboro, N. H., and came to Clarendon with his parents at the age of three years. His occupation during the active years of his life was farming, but for the last 20 years he had resided in the village, where he was known by all as a good neighbor, and his familiar presence will be greatly missed among us. He leaves of his immediate family, three children, Mrs. L. S. Foster, of Phelps, N. Y.; Mrs. Fred Darling, of Interlaken, N. Y.; and Albert Turner, of Holley. The funeral was held Sunday, January 29, at the Universalist church, Clarendon, Rev. L. H. Robinson [Universalist] officiating. Interment at Hillside cemetery, Holley.
