

[Turner, Nancy M. Ellis]

Turner

Victor people were saddened this morning when word was received that Nancy M. Turner, widow of the late Thomas E. Turner had passed away at 8 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, ex-supervisor William H. Turner who resided three miles south of Victor. Mrs. Turner had been in feeble health for several years and on Sunday her condition took a turn for the worse.

Nancy M. Turner was born at Duaneburg, Schenectady [County], N.Y. on November 14, 1824, making her age at the time of her death 89 years and 8 months. Her parents were the late Henry Ellis and Isabel Bennett. She leaves to mourn her one daughter, Mrs. Isabel Bennett of Canandaigua, one son, William H. Turner at whose home she died, one brother, Bolivar Ellis of Victor who is the last one of six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis. There are also twenty grandchildren, forty-five great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Turner was a faithful member of St. Paul's Universalist church, a woman of noble, upright character, loved by all who knew her. She held a warm place in the hearts of a wide circle who sincerely mourn her loss, knowing the allwise Father had spared her to her loved ones for four score and ten years before calling her to her reward.

The funeral service will be held on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of her son William H. Turner, her pastor [S. F.?] Weed officiating. Burial on Boughton Hill.
