

[Tuthill, Mary Jane Newcomb]

DIES IN PHILADELPHIA
Mrs. Mary Jane Tuthill Former Resident of Cortland

Mrs. Mary Jane Tuthill, 58, a resident of Cortland for many years, died Saturday at the home of her son, Alson B. Tuthill, in Philadelphia, Pa., following a long illness. She suffered a fractured shoulder last year in this city and she went to Philadelphia for an operation.

Mrs. Tuthill was born in Vestal, June 4, 1879, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newcomb. Mr. Newcomb was a Civil War hero. She was educated in Elmira where she became employed in a newspaper office. Later she went to Cleveland, O., and finally settled in Cortland. She was a member of the Universalist Church.

Besides her son, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Hicks of Erin, Mrs. Harriett Walker of Horseheads and Mrs. Harry Duren of Binghamton; two brothers, Arthur and William Newcomb of Binghamton; and several nieces and nephews.

The body was removed to Beard memorial home in this city where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening between 7:30 and 9. Burial will be made in the Cortland Rural Cemetery.
