

[Tuttle, Benajmin]

DEATHS.

In this town, on the 9th instant, Benjamin Tuttle, in his 81st year.

Mr. Tuttle was a soldier of the revolution—for the last 45 years a resident of this town, and has, through life, sustained an unblemished reputation. He was a firm believer in the doctrines of God's impartial grace, and his faith abundantly sustained him, while contemplating upon his departure hence. It robbed death of its terrors, and unfolded to his view the bright regions of joy, enabling him peacefully to resign his spirit to him who gave it.

He has left an aged companion, and a numerous family of children and friends to lament their loss.

His funeral was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing neighbors and friends, on the 10th, and the consolations of the gospel feelingly tendered by our Bro. O. [Oliver] Ackley.

Herald of Truth, Geneva NY, Sat. 17 Jan 1835
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 2 Nov 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY