

[Tuttle, Phoebe Mariette Francis]

SOUTH EDMESTON

—Phoebe Mariette, widow of the late Almon L. Tuttle, died on Tuesday, Feb. 28, at her home in Columbus, after an illness of a little more than a week, following a paralytic attack on Saturday, Feb. 18. Mrs. Tuttle was 80 years of age and the last surviving of nine children of Levi Francis of Sherburne, where she was born and lived until her marriage to Mr. Tuttle, April 15, 1851. Deceased was a member of the Universalist church of Columbus and also of the W.C.T.U. of South Edmeston and will be greatly missed by both of these organizations. Funeral services at her home at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday were conducted by Rev. Geo. C. Baner of Utica. Burial was made in the Lamb's Corners cemetery.
