

[Underwood, Charles H.]

Death of Charles Underwood Occurred Last Week

Schuyler Lake, May 19. — The many friends of Charles H. Underwood will regret to learn of his death, which occurred Friday. Mr. Underwood has been in poor health for some time. He was a son of Seymour and Eliza Chappel Underwood and was born in this village Nov. 13, 1869. He was united in marriage in 1893 to Neva Towne of this village, who died in 1910. Two children blessed this union, Herbert Underwood of Utica and Miss Helen Underwood of this place. When a young man he worked at the carpenter's trade here with R. H. Hinds and was a member of the old Schuyler Lake band. He went to Ilion in 1895 and for years worked in the Remington Typewriter plant, he being an expert workman. He was also a member of the K. O. T. M. at that place.

He leaves to mourn his death, besides the children mentioned, an aged mother, Mrs. Eliza Underwood and sister Mrs. E. J. [Mary A.] Lidell, both of this place, and one grandchild. The body will be brought here for burial. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Daily Star, Oneonta NY, Mon. 20 May 1918

Charles Underwood

The body of Charles Underwood was brought to Schuyler Lake on Monday and his funeral conducted from the home of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Underwood.

Many old friends came to attend the funeral, Schuyler Lake having been his boyhood home.

Surviving him are his mother, one sister, Mrs. Bert [Mary] Lidell, one daughter, Miss Helen, who has lived with her grandmother for several years, one son, Herbert, of Ilion, besides numerous other relatives. The Rev. Charles Kramer [Universalist] conducted the service and burial was made in the local cemetery, beside his wife who died several years ago.—Our Schuyler Lake Reporter.

Farmer and Republican, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 24 May 1918