

[Utman, Zenas T.]

Obsequies.

The funeral of ZENAS T. UTMAN, which occurred from his late residence, No. 25 North Transit street, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, was very largely attended by his many friends in this city, and was a most impressive and solemn affair. The tribute of respect shown by his fellow-workmen, who turned out in a body, 72 of them, and marched in procession as an escort to the grave, was a touching and convincing proof of the high regard in which the deceased was held. The remains were interred at Cold Springs cemetery. Many testimonials and floral emblems were received from friends of Mr. UTMAN, a magnificent floral column, with massive base, composed of forget-me-nots and calla lilies, the gift of his associates in the Holly shops, being especially noticeable. It was from the greenhouse of C. L. DOLE. The eloquent and appropriate funeral sermon was most impressively delivered by the Rev. S. G. Davis, formerly pastor of the Universalist church, of which deceased was a member.

Lockport Journal, Lockport NY, Wed. 19 Apr 1882

Transcribed on 28 Jul 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY