G. N. Van Alstine, Dolgeville, Dies

DOLGEVILLE—George N. Van Alstine, 65, of 49 State St., retired supervisor of the Dolgeville Central School garage, died today in Little Falls Hospital following a long illness.

Mr. VanAlstine was born April 6, 1889 in Little Falls, son of Charles and Marion Ransom VanAlstine. On June 20, 1908, he married Ethel Ash.

In his early life, he was employed by the Railway Express Agency until he entered in partnership in the A. & H. Motors Co. He later sold his interest and became supervisor of the central school garage, retiring about two years ago because of illness. Besides his wife, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ira Edgett, Ilion, and Mrs. Catherine Petrie, Detroit, Mich.; a brother, Charles, of Fenton, Mich.; and several nieces and nephews. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the home, with the Rev. Gale Bascombe, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Inghams Mills Cemetery. Friends may call at the home tomorrow afternoon and evening. The family requests that flowers be omitted, and the friends give instead to their favorite charity.
