

[Van Alstyne, Theodore]

THEODORE VAN ALSTYNE

Little Falls, Dec. 14—Theodore Van Alstyne, 77, died at his home, 72 West Main Street, this morning from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Van Alstyne was born in this city, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Van Alstyne. He had been employed for (28?) years in the Sheard Knitting Company, better known as the Rex Mills, and relinquished his position there but a year ago. On August 17 last, Mr. Van Alstyne and his wife, who was Jane Ellen Beverley, celebrated their (55th?) wedding anniversary.

Surviving are the widow; three sons, Edward, John and Frank Van Alstyne of this city; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Johnson of Utica, six grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. George [Emma] Marcellus of St. Johnsville.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. from the home and at 3 from St. Paul's Universalist Church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment in Church Street Cemetery.
