

[Van Amber, Charles W.]

Taken from The Times' Files 10 and 25 years ago today.
May 16, 1913

Charles W. Van Amber, a well known former resident of this city, died early this morning in Detroit, aged 54 years. He was employed for many years in the Watertown Carriage Co. and went to Detroit about a year ago.

Daily Times, Watertown NY, Wed. 16 May 1923

C. W. VAN AMBER'S FUNERAL
Services at the Home of His Son Are Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late Charles W. Van Amber was very largely attended on Sunday afternoon from the residence of his son, Ray Van Amber, 526 Franklin street. Representatives from the (? ?), Foresters and Odd Fellows lodges were in attendance. The Rev. Harry Westbrook Reed [minister of the Watertown Universalist Church] officiated at the home. At the grave the funeral service of the Odd Fellows was read by officers of Watertown City lodge. A goodly sized delegation of Foresters and Odd Fellows accompanied the remains to the North Watertown cemetery. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful.

Daily Times, Watertown NY, Mon. 19 May 1913

Transcribed on 5 Oct 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY