

[Van Dusen, Nelson]

Death of Nelson Van Dusen

Nelson Van Dusen, a respected citizen, died at his home in Marshall Avenue, Monday evening at 11 o'clock at the age of 73 years. He was stricken with paralysis soon after walking home from the post office on Thursday afternoon. He seemed in his usual good health up to that time. He lay in a helpless condition after until the end came Monday. The deceased's boyhood days were spent on a farm in Columbia where he lived until he came to Mohawk where he has since resided. Besides his widow he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lucinda Morgan of E. Main street [mother of Rev. Clara A. Morgan, Universalist minister]. The funeral will be held from the house this Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. E. V. Stevens [Universalist] officiating. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.
